The Maxxus Group Expands With New Travel Division

The Maxxus Group International announced the expansion of the company with the addition of a new travel division to better meet the needs of its current and future clientele.

CHICAGO, Illinois – January 27, 2010 -- The Maxxus Group, Inc., an international incentive agency, announced the expansion of the company with the acquisition of Ultimate Travel, Inc., a travel services company also headquartered in Chicago, IL. In making the announcement, said Hanson Ansary, the company president, "After many months of re-branding and organizing this new division, we are pleased to now be able to offer a wider range of services to our current and prospective clients."

Ultimate Travel, Inc., will be joining the company's other well-known divisions Global Management Services, Inc., an event planning and destination management company serving the US & Canada, as well as Global Hotels Management, Inc., a company that contracts and manages hotel room blocks for city-wide conventions or special interest groups.

Continued Ansary "we made the decision to expand our services at this point in time to fulfill specific needs of a group of loyal clients and could not pass up the opportunity to add this company to our portfolio." Ultimate Travel, Inc. specializes in group and incentive travel and is staffed by a team of professional Travel Counselors and Destination Specialists. Ultimate Travel services span a wide array of travel-related functions including airline reservations, group and business travel, cruises, ground transportation, destination weddings and honeymoons, group and individual customized vacation packages, as well as many special amenities.

"We are pleased to see Ultimate Travel join our team to enable us to better respond to our clients' growing needs," concluded Ansary.
